THE HENRY JONES ART HOTEL

Set right on Hobart's waterfront in a row of converted sandstone warehouses dating back to 1825, the Henry Jones Art Hotel captures the history and wonder of a bygone era and blends it perfectly with modern comforts and creative expression. Comprising 56 first-class suites, a restaurant, bar and function rooms, the Henry Jones is Australia's first dedicated Art Hotel, showcasing work by some of Tasmania's finest visual artists.

MARIA ISLAND WALK

There are few places on the planet that offer the tranquillity and unspoiled natural beauty of Maria Island. It hosts a unique blend of wildlife, including rare animals and birds found nowhere else in the world. As you walk pristine beaches and through tall and ancient forests, you will learn of the fascinating history of the island. Natural wonders include the Fossil cliffs and beautiful sandstone sculptures of the Painted Cliffs.

A gentle, four-day guided walk through this island National Park offers small groups, accompanied by two local expert guides, a unique and unforgettable blend of rare wildlife, fascinating history, breathtaking scenery, gourmet dinners and elegant accommodation.

SAFFIRE FREYCINET

Saffire Freycinet is an inspirational coastal sanctuary offering sophisticated luxury in every form.

A rejuvenating and enlightening haven nestled amongst The Hazards pink granite mountains, white sand beaches, grey-green bushland and the iconic blue waters of the Freycinet Peninsula. Distinct in its design, exclusive in its features and set apart by its approach to uncompromising service, Saffire approaches each guest as an individual, encouraging you to involve yourself as much or as little as you like in our experience and the surrounding environment. Saffire is boutique not only in its size, with just 20 accommodation suites, but in its approach to making your well-deserved break last a lifetime.
